MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 7.

A STRIKING SEQUEL.—John Williamson, the wealthy farmer who was cruelly treated by his wife on Thursday, is lying on a cot in the St. Joseph, Mo., Hospital in a precarious condition. His physicians have hopes of his recovery, as the injuries caused by his mad jump from the train is not so severe as at first supposed. The romance of the story was made more lively by the visit of the wife to the wounded man this morning. She induced the husband, who is worth $50,000, to make a will leaving all his property to her and the baby, though she subsequently confessed to a reporter that she had actually been a party to the bleeding of her husband for $1,000 in cash for her treacherous cousin, Joe Starks, who seemed to have a relentless magnetism over her, and had planned the whole dramatic scene wherein she got the last $500, jumped from the train and was so closely and almost fatally followed by her duped husband. The baby has been taken to a convent.

NOVEL CHURCH EVILALY.—A dispatch from Norfolk says:

"The rivalry between the Granby street and Cumberland street Methodist Episcopal churches has become so warm since the Cumberland street deacon, Dr. W. G. Starr to fill the pulpit, and the able Professor Newton Spitz to direct its music, that on Sunday Granby street did the unheard-of thing in a Methodist church of engaging a full band in its choir, composed of fifteen pieces. Up to the time Dr. Starr was in the Cumberland, Dr. Tudor, of the Granby, drew the largest congregation. Since the advent of Dr. Starr the large church in town is filled to overflowing to hear him. Up to the time of his coming the able Dr. Tudor would not sanction high music. It is said that he recently told the organists of his church to have anything in the shape of sacred music, so as to draw back the attendance."

A SURGEON STRIKES A PATIENT.—The Minnesota State Medical Board was called together on Thursday to consider a very singular case. Geth ord, Tensing of St. Paul, preferred charges against Dr. Frederick and Theodore De Dolph. He asserts that he was recently having a leg operated on, in the course of which he was given chloroform. When recovering from the effects of the anesthetic he was roughly handled by the two about and struck one of the doctors in the face. The physician lost his temper, and savagely struck the semi-conscious man, knocking out an eye. For the first time in his history, the board sat as a Medical Court, but did not finish the case. The De Dolphs claim the affair was the result of an accident.

MEDICINAL.

NEVER FAILS.

RUPTURE ON FACE AND NECK.
After suffering for eight months with a troublesome eruption on my face and neck, and trying all sorts of remedies, I was finally cured by taking a few bottles of Swift's Specific. It increased my weight from 95 to 155 pounds.
A. W. CHODD, Ottawa, Kansas.

RHEUMATISM ELIMINATED FROM THE BLOOD.
I am satisfied that S. S. S. is the best blood remedy in the world. I have used it for rheumatism with the best results.
L. L. HOSSEN, Sherman, Texas.

LAD CASE OF THROAT RITE.
A patient under my charge was badly affected with blood poisoning, the result of frost bite in the feet. Both feet had sloughed off before he was turned over to me. He was cured soundly with a few bottles of S. S. S., and is now walking about on his knees. R. L. WOOD, Millersville, Ga.
